

My ideal teacher it should be responsive, understanding respecting the views of children. The teacher is the person to whom the children can always rely person who loves children and keeps them, he always responds when you need help, and he will always be for you as a best friend. but at the same time it must be ~~fair~~ fair and must have objectives.
The teacher should be of interest to children in his classes it was not boring. He must be a person who can reach out to every child It should conscientiously carry out his work.

Now what should be the ideal teacher
